Friendly Reminder

No Soliciting! Though never 100 percent effective, "No Solicitation" door signs often deter unwanted solicitors. To obtain one of these signs, please contact your account manager, who will be happy to have a Cummings Properties representative affix one to your door. The best way to dispense with unwanted visitors is to request a business card, then ask them to leave. Pass the business card along to your account manager, and he or she will contact the soliciting firm and formally request that it stop visiting Cummings Properties buildings.
