Noteworthy News

Center, Suite 120-B, has gained media attention for its latest humanitarian effort. The local nonprofit shipped hundreds of pieces of desperately needed medical equipment to Haiti to treat the thousands of people who were injured in the earthquake that devastated the country on August 14. Team members spent days packing operating room tables, blood pressure monitors, pulse oximeters, sterilizing machines, and surgical kits for this large-scale relief effort. Friendly Reminder

Constructive Information: The Cummings Properties lease agreement provides that each client firm may make non-structural alterations and repairs in its suite using the contractor of its choice, provided it has obtained Cummings' prior written consent. All such work shall be at the lessee's expense, and must comply with Cummings' Construction Guidelines and Specifications. While Cummings Properties has its own experienced construction crews, and would typically be happy to provide a quote for most types of work, we are currently unable to take on elective work. Please contact your account manager for more information.

Shoe Snippets

Fun facts about the historic Cummings Center site, formerly known as "the Shoe"

The restoration and transformation of the 2 million-square-foot Shoe site was one of the world's largest industrial plant recycling projects. Approximately 32 acres of interior space were completely restored. Some of the original structures are still visible. For example, the 100-E and 100-L glass entrances of 100 Cummings Center were built around the existing concrete structure.
